

August 2007

Hello,

About a year ago, I was inspired to set up a Scholarship Foundation in honor of my dearly beloved sister. I honestly believe that this was one of the ways that God was using to heal me, to comfort me and give me peace. Though I didn't get started immediately, the desire never left. Now the time has finally come and doors have been open such that I might move forward. I ask for your support in this endeavor if at all possible. (See the enclosure).

Thanking you in advance for your cooperation and consideration; and may God continue to abundantly bless you is my prayer.

Sincerely,

Meloneze M. Moore
